Please sign, indicating understanding of the following:

I understand that refunds will normally not be made for cancellations within two weeks of the start of camp. I understand that a camp participant will be forbidden from taking part in further camp activities if, in the judgment of the instructor, he/she is unable to follow directions and participate in a manner that is safe for the participant, other participants, or the animals in the program. Should the further presence of a participant who is deemed to be acting in an unsafe or disrespectful manner become disruptive to the ongoing camp program, an adult will be asked to come to the facility to pick up the participant and there will be no refund.
